

McGill University Student Stipend Payment Authorization Form

Student Stipend Definition: Money paid to a student from a professor's grant for the purpose of allowing the student to fund their own research/thesis or other program/academic requirement. It may be paid to international students as well as Canadian students.

RECIPIENT/STUDENT INFORMATION

Student Last Name / First (Preferred) Name (please print)		McGill ID
Student Level during funding period proposed for the Award Processing Form	Undergraduate (Bachelors)	Graduate (Master or PhD)

STIPEND/FUNDING INFORMATION

Fund Title (please print)
Fund	Organization	Account - cannot be changed	Program	Activity	Location
		600200		000000	000000

Start Date (DDMMYYYY) XXXXXXXXXX

- The recipient of this student stipend is duly registered and pursuing studies as a student at McGill University;
- All responsibilities of the recipient must relate to training and studies as a student;
- The recipient does not hold academic / professorial rank as an additional appointment at McGill;
- The amount and nature of payment adhere to the pertinent Research Sponsor's guidelines.

I fully understand that the payment of this student stipend is considered employment income and as such the amount:

-