

McGill Athletics requires students to referee and supervise sports facilities throughout the school year. For more information, visit Client Services at the Currie Gym (475 Pine Avenue West) or the following job board.

BMH, RVC, New Rez and Douglas Hall require cafeteria workers to help serve and prepare meals. Ask any manager of the food facilities for available positions. For a list of dining halls and their locations click here.

CL&E hires students to work in Student Services. Various coordinating assistant positions in summer and throughout academic year. For more information visit the CL&E website.

McGill Alumni hires students throughout the year to solicit donors. The pay is good and hours are flexible. Most hiring takes place in August/September and January. For more information and to apply, email phonathon.dev@mcgill.ca or call 514-398-7699

SSMU is always looking to employ students. While most hiring takes place in April and May for the following school year, you can check for any current postings here.

SSMU Marketplace has classified ads and job listings.

If you loved your rez experience and want to give back, become a Floor Fellow or Residence Life Facilitator. For more info, visit their website.

The Bookstore hires armies of students in early September and early January as cashiers for the textbook rush. Apply in person.

If you are good at a particular subject and have obtained a grade of 80% or more in the course(s) you wish to tutor. Consider to apply to be a tutor.

Student Affairs Office hires students for examination periods to ensure the smooth running of examinations. Job postings can be found at myFuture and/or here.

Click here to see a list of available student employment opportunities.