

Dear [Name],

[Name],
[Address]
[City]
[Country]

Dear [Name],

Your application to study or work in Canada has been approved.

You will receive a letter from the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) office in [City] within [Timeframe]. This letter will contain the conditions of your approval and the documents you need to bring with you when you travel to Canada. You must bring a valid passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a student, you must also bring a letter from your educational institution in your home country confirming your admission to a program of study in Canada. If you are a worker, you must also bring a letter from your employer in your home country confirming your employment in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a visitor, you must also bring a letter from your sponsor in your home country confirming your sponsorship in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a permanent resident, you must also bring a letter from the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) office in [City] confirming your permanent residency in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a temporary resident, you must also bring a letter from the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) office in [City] confirming your temporary residency in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a worker, you must also bring a letter from your employer in your home country confirming your employment in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a student, you must also bring a letter from your educational institution in your home country confirming your admission to a program of study in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a visitor, you must also bring a letter from your sponsor in your home country confirming your sponsorship in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.

If you are a permanent resident, you must also bring a letter from the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) office in [City] confirming your permanent residency in Canada. You must also bring a copy of your passport and a recent photograph of you. You must also bring a copy of this letter with you. You must travel to Canada within the validity period of your approval. You must also ensure that you have adequate funds to support yourself and any dependants during your stay in Canada. You must also ensure that you have adequate health insurance coverage for your stay in Canada.