

Meeting minutes for the Senate Committee on Libraries

Thursday, October 12, 2017 – 4:00pm Room M1.0 McLennan Library Building

---

interdisciplinary programs in the areas of sustainability and systems policy. Libraries would be in this space, offering 24 service.

c. ROAAr (Rare & Special Collections, Osler, Art and Archives)

-Nathalie Cooke has been seconded from the Faculty of Arts to lead the Department of Rare & Special Collections, Osler, Art and Archives since 1 September 2016.

-With the help of a SSHRC Connections grant, she has been able to develop new programs

-Nathalie oversees collections in the McGill Library, the Blackwood collection (the third most comprehensive collection of natural history prints and manuscripts in North America), the Voltaire collection, Sir William Osler's collection, and the best Canadiana collection in the world

d. BCI (

12. The article said that Maclean's magazine praised the McGill Libraries first in the nation in library acquisitions, which measures the proportion of the library budget that is allocated to updating the university's collection."

The Meeting adjourned at 4:00pm.