

Contextual and Individual Effects Behind Fertility Change in the West Bank and Gaza Strip

Anaïs Simard-Gendron and Simona Bignami
Department of Demography, Université de Montréal

Palestinian fertility is among the highest in the Arab world (4.1 children per woman, PCBS, 2008). The demand for children is high even though conditions for fertility decline are met:

- Low infant mortality rate
-