

Tenure-Track Faculty Position

Open to rank of Assistant Professor or

The successful candidate that satisfies the eligibility conditions of the Canada Research Chair (CRC) program may be supported by the University for nomination to a Tier 2 Chair in North American Indigenous History, which provides protected time for research within a full-time academic appointment.

Nominees for Tier 2 Chair positions must be emerging scholars and hold the rank of assistant or associate professor, or possess the necessary qualifications to be appointed to these levels. A nominee who is more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree and has experienced legitimate career interruptions (e.g., maternity or parental leave, extended sick leave, clinical training, and family care) will be taken into consideration using the Tier 2 justification process.

Eligibility conditions for CRCs are found at http://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/programme/nomination-mise_en_candidature-eng.aspx#s3

Research, teaching, service

Candidates should have completed a PhD in a relevant field or be very near completion.
