Submitted by

2018-2019 Detailed Analysis

ACADEMIC OFFENCES (Adjudicated by Disciplinary Officers)

For the range of articles in the Code addressing academic offences, please refer to Appendix B. In 2018-19, the majority of the decisions (69.5%) were plagiarism while 29.1% of the decisions were cheating; these figures are similar to past years where there has been a ratio of approximately 2 or 3 to 1.

NON-ACADEMIC OFFENCES (Adjudicated by Disciplinary Officers)

For the range of Articles in the Code addressing non-academic offences, please refer to Appendix C. In 2018-19, 13 or 52% of the decisions were for Article 10 (Physical Abuses, Harassment and Dangerous Activity). This compares to 32 decisions or approximately 42.7% in 2017-18 and 25 decisions or approximately 44% in 2016-17. Article 10 is usually the most common allegation for non-academic offenses.

CASES REFERRED TO THE COMMITTEE ON STUDENT DISCIPLINE

Two student cases were heard by the Committee on Student Discipline in 2018-19, both carrying over from 2017-18. Seven student cases were heard by the Committee on Student Discipline in 2017-18. One CSD hearing is pending and will be included in the 2019-

CONCLUSION AND THANKS

Service as a Disciplinary Officer (Appendix E) and as a CSD member (Appendix F) demands an important investment of time by the staff and students appointed to these positions. Many thanks to all for their attention to detail and to approved procedures, and for the respectful environment maintained in all disciplinary matters. These are demanding roles that involve using a range of tools and strategies to maintain order and assure the principles of academic integrity are respected. This also includes the application of the Code to balance the rights of complainants, persons under allegation and the wider community of McGill University.

Many key issues in our community are played out through the discipline system, such as, the limits of freedom of expression, the accommodation of students with disabilities or severe mental University i.e. where does McGill University have jurisdiction, and where does it not? Staff and students are on the frontline of these key debates and they make difficult decisions on a daily basis that can924e0 612 792 reW* nBT/ETQ2 re.5fy .5fy .5fy .5fy .5
