

MSW Non-Thesis

STATEMENT OF INTENT AND INTEREST GUIDELINES

The Master of Social Work program seeks candidates with a demonstrated interest in acquiring a deeper understanding of the social work profession. I. Personal Statement of Intent: (500 words maximum)

How have your life, work, and educational experiences contributed to your interest in becoming a social worker?

II. Statement of Interest: (500 words maximum)

Identify a social problem that you might want to address as a social worker. Discuss possible causes of this social problem. How might social workers approach this problem? Please cite a social problem.

How does studying Social Work at McGill professor would you like to work with? (Refer to professor bios on the School's website for more