The Minor Concentration in Social Studies of Medicine is an interdisciplinary concentration of courses designed to address the needs of (1) undergraduates preparing for one of the health professions, and (2) social sciences and humanities undergraduates who wish to gain a broader interdisciplinary understanding of medicine and health issues.

The courses present medicine as a complex network of institutions, cultures and political relations embedded in the institutions, cultures and political relations of the larger society. Courses are divided into three groups: History of Medicine, Anthropology of Medicine, and Medical Humanities and Social Sciences.

The Minor consists of 18 credits. Students are required to take six credits from each of the three groups. Note: No overlap is permitted with courses counting towards the student's Major Concentration. A maximum of 6 credits can be taken at another university; the approval of the student's adviser is required.

MINOR CONCENTRATION IN SOCIAL STUDIES OF MEDICINE (18 credits)

[Additional course selections are expected for Sept. 2002.

Go to <http://www.mcgill.ca> (Course Calendars) in July for details.]

Complementary Courses (18 credits)
