

	Dr. Marsha Heyman		(514) 340-8222, x 25693 marsha.heyman@mcgill.ca
	Vi Hoang		(514) 340-8222, x 25186 vi.hoang.ccomtl@ssss.gouv.qc.ca

Jewish General Hospital
The elective will focus on student participation on a day treatment program for children with severe psychiatric comorbidities. The student will participate in evaluations and treatment planning. The student will participate in multimodal interventions, including individual therapy, family therapy and group therapy. The student will have the opportunity to observe Psychological Testing, Occupational Therapy and Speech/Language Therapy and understand why this relates to Child Psychiatry. The student will learn and participate in psychopharmacological interventions.

2, 3, 4 weeks (

Psychiatric Clerkship

Cutler, J. L. (2014). Psychiatry, Oxford University Press.